

EDUCATION

Graduate

University of California, Los Angeles School of Law

Juris Doctor, May 1985

Pepperdine University

Masters in Business Administration, Finance Emphasis, December 2003

Undergraduate

California State University, Los Angeles

Bachelor of Science, December 1981

PRESENT EMPLOYMENT Southern California Edison Company, Senior Attorney

Rosemead, California

(May 1997-Present)

Represent Southern California Edison Company in all aspects of civil litigation, including jury trials, court trials, mediations and arbitrations; extensive discovery and motion practice. Also represented the Company in complex regulatory proceedings before the California Public Utilities Commission, including general rate cases for the electric, gas and water utilities and the Order Instituting Investigation regarding the PBR Customer Satisfaction and Employee Safety Incentive Mechanisms.

PRIOR EMPLOYMENT

Assistant United States Attorney, Central District of California, Major Frauds Section Los Angeles, California (August 1990- May 1997)

Coordinated complex pre-indictment investigations; drafted search warrant and electronic wiretap affidavits. Prosecuted numerous jury trials in federal court and argued before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals on numerous occasions which resulted in two published decisions United States of America v. Brackeen, 969 F.2d 827 (9th Cir.1992) (en banc) and United States of America v. Leung, 35 F.3d 1402 (9th Cir. 1994).

Deputy District Attorney III, Los Angeles County Los Angeles, California

(May 1986- August 1990)

Prosecuted numerous felony and misdemeanor jury trials, including murder, attempted murder, robbery, assault, arson, rape and other serious felonies; was assigned to the Hardcore Gang Unit.

Trial Attorney, United States Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division,
Special Litigation Section, Washington, D.C. (July 1985- May 1986)
Represented the United States in investigations and civil litigation brought pursuant to the Civil Rights of Institutionalized Persons Act.

Judicial Extern, Hon. Arthur L. Alarcon, Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit Los Angeles, California (January 1984- May 1984)

Prepared bench memoranda recommending disposition of appeals; drafted opinions.

AWARDS

U.S. Department of Justice, Special Achievement Awards (August 1993; September 1994) Los Angeles City Council, Commendation for Work on Rampart Panel (February 2001) Southern California Edison Company, Leadership Grant Recipient (July 2001)

PUBLICATIONS

California Lawyer, Search Warrant Response, pg. 39, April 2002

PROFESSIONAL COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

California Appellate Project, Panel Attorney (2001 to 2004)

Rampart Independent Review Panel, Deputy General Counsel (2001)

Commissioner, City of Monterey Park Planning Commission (2003-Present)

Hispanic National Bar Association (2008 to Present)

Los Angeles County Bar Assoc., Corporate Law Departments Section, Executive Committee

(2008 to Present)

California Minority Counsel Program, Member (1997 to Present)

REFERENCES

Recommendations and writing samples furnished upon request.

SECOND DISTRICT COMMISSION NOMINEES

(unranked)

Honorable James Butts

Inglewood Mayor James Butts possesses a nearly four decade career in public safety, municipal government and education. One of the longest serving police chiefs in Los Angeles County (Santa Monica from 1991 to 2006) before serving as Deputy Executive Director of Los Angeles World Airports. Mayor Butts is intimately involved with public safety issues.

Honorable Candace Cooper (Ret.)

Retired Justice Candace Cooper recently stepped down from Division Eight of California Second Appellate District after almost 28 years on the bench. She continues to use her legal and judicial expertise as a member of the Los Angeles Resolution Center where she serves as a mediator and arbitrator.

Honorable Joseph Dunn (Ret.)*

Senator Joseph Dunn is the Executive Director of the California State Bar. He has served in that capacity since 2010. Prior to his current post he was elected to the California State Senate in 1998 and served until 2006. In the Legislature, he chaired the Senate Judiciary Committee and the Senate Housing Committee.

Honorable Martha Escutia (Ret.)*

Senator Martha Escutia is a co-founding member of The Senators Firm, LLP. Her law and consulting practice focuses on government and regulatory matters, with a particular emphasis on telecommunications, education /instructional materials and health-related issues. A former member of the California State Assembly and Senate, Senator Escutia served in the California Legislature from 1992 to 2006. During her tenure, she chaired both the Assembly and Senate Judiciary Committees and led the multi-year effort to restructure the California Judicial system.

Daniel F. Romero

Rev. Daniel Romero is Conference Minister for the Southern California Nevada Conference for the United Church of Christ. In December of 1984, Rev. Romero received a Juris Doctor degree from Loyola University Law School. He is a member of the New York Bar with particular interest in immigration and international law. He has traveled extensively reviewing mission programs and policy with overseas partners and has served in a variety of capacities with the United Church of Christ, the National Council of Churches and in facilitating the UCC/Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) ecumenical partnership. He is committed to working with diverse constituencies in shaping an authentic ecumenical and multicultural context for ministry. He is the author of "Our Futures Inextricably Linked: A Vision of Pluralism", published by the United Church Board for Homeland Ministries.

Honorable Gloria Romero (Ret.)*

Senator Gloria Romero is California State Director of Democrats for Education Reform. A former member of the California State Assembly and Senate, Senator Romero served in the California Legislature with distinction from 2001-2010. As Chairwoman of the Senate Public Safety Committee and the Senate Select Committee on the California Correctional System, a special investigative committee of the Senate, she obtained detailed knowledge of the largest prison system in the country. As a member of the national Commission on Safety and Abuse in America's Prisons, she is well aware of the challenges facing youth and correctional facilities of all types.

John B. Slaughter*

Dr. John Slaughter joined the Rossier School of Education in January, 2010 as Professor of Education, with a joint appointment at the Viterbi School of Engineering. A former director of the National Science Foundation, president of Occidental College in Los Angeles and chancellor at the University of Maryland, College Park, Dr. Slaughter has a long and distinguished background as a leader in education, engineering and scientific communities. He served as a member of the Independent Commission on the Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD), informally known as the Christopher Commission, created in the wake of the Rodney King beating trial verdict in 1992, to "conduct a full and fair examination of the structure and operation of the LAPD, including its recruitment and training practices, internal disciplinary system, and citizen complaint system."

EDUCATION

University of Wisconsin-Madison B.A. with Distinction in History (1984)

Georgetown University Law Center Juris Doctor (1987) Dean's List

WORK EXPERIENCE

PRESIDENT,

National Council on Crime and Delinquency 05/2010 - Present

- President of national organization using research, education, and technical assistance, that identifies, promotes, and implements innovative, equitable, and economically sound solutions to improve the lives of children, families, and communities.
- Responsible for managing national staff of over 70 people with offices in Oakland, Madison and Jacksonville.

DIRECTOR

Washington DC Office Vera Institute of Justice, Washington, DC 07/2006 - 05/2010

- Founding Director of the Washington, DC office of the Vera Institute of Justice. The Vera Institute of Justice combines expertise in research, demonstration projects, and technical assistance to help leaders in government and civil society improve the systems people rely on for justice and safety.
- Responsible for managing D.C. staff, working with Vera's main office in New York on numerous criminal justice issues, meeting with local, state and Federal government officials and organizations, developing new criminal justice initiatives in D.C. and around the country, serving as lead staff for the National Prison Rape Elimination Commission and continuing as Executive Director of Vera's Commission on Safety and Abuse in America's Prisons.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Commission on Safety and Abuse in America's Prisons Vera Institute of Justice, Washington, DC 12/2004 - 05/2010

 Executive Director of Vera's 20-member national bipartisan Commission examining issues of abuse and safety in domestic jails and prisons. Commissioners are nationally recognized leaders in public service, criminal justice and prison matters. The Commission held public hearings, to help identify pragmatic reforms and issued its recommendations in the June 2006. Hired the professional staff, established Washington office and led development of the strategic plan. Responsible for all on-going activities of the Commission, including supervision of a staff of lawyers and researchers. Represented the Commission before national and local press, TV and radio. Met regularly with policy makers, foundations, citizen groups, criminal justice organizations and congressional staff to advance the work of the Commission.

Areas of focus of the existing

Improving

Commission include:

O Assessing the extent of prison violence, including rape, extortion, gang activity and inmate abuse.

• Evaluating management, leadership and labor issues in the corrections profession.

internal and external oversight of jails and prisons.

Proposing legislative

O Proposing legislative and policy solutions to improve conditions for inmates and corrections officers.

ADJUNCT PROFESSOR

08/2007 - 05/2008

American University School of Law, Washington, DC

Taught Prosecution Seminar that covered ethics, responsibilities of the prosecutor, investigative strategies and trial practice, how to critically think about the role of the prosecutor in the community and how to measure success as a prosecutor.

COUNSELOR TO SENATOR RUSS FEINGOLD

U.S. Senate Judiciary Committee, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 07/2002 - 12/2004

- While serving as trial attorney in Department of Justice, selected to serve as counsel to Senator Feingold on matters involving criminal justice and homeland security. Developed bills, reviewed legislation for the Judiciary Committee, drafted speeches and floor statements, met with concerned groups and individuals and prepared the Senator for hearings, judicial nominations, meetings and interviews.
- Some of the specific legislative and policy issues addressed during tenure with the Judiciary Committee included the USA PATRIOT Act, immigration, the use of excessive force by U.S. Customs agents, the ANTI-Gang Act, the Federal Sentencing guidelines in wake of Supreme Court Blakely decision and issues involving oversight of the Department of Justice.

TRIAL ATTORNEY

Civil Rights Division, Criminal Section, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 10/1998 - 12/2004

- As criminal prosecutor in the Department of Justice, investigated and prosecuted high-profile criminal civil rights cases across the country involving law enforcement misconduct, racial and religious violence, involuntary servitude and sexual violence against women. Led teams of local, state and federal law enforcement officials, judges and others in many complex national cases including:
 - o Investigated California police officers for conspiring with one another to commit robberies, burglaries and for two homicides. Subsequent federal prosecution involved over 15 defendants.
 - o Convicted Florida state jail warden of raping a female inmate at gunpoint.

O Convicted Maryland police officers of intentionally releasing police dog on helpless men as part of an investigation of corrupt departmental practices.

Led federal review of New York state prosecution of four officers charged with intentionally shooting an unarmed man, Amadou Diallo, 41 times.

Convicted four Maryland men of burning crosses at public high school to intimidate African-American students.

Officers pled guilty to improper sexual contact.

ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY

O

New York County District Attorney's Office, New York, NY 08/1987 - 10/1998

Tried over 65 cases to verdict and presented more than 400 cases to grand juries with convictions in last 32 trials. Responsible for investigating and prosecuting felonies, including homicides, serious domestic violence and child abuse, violent street crime and excessive force allegations. Conducted numerous grand jury presentations, hearings, and plea negotiations and provided police with legal and tactical instructions on a regular basis to assist with investigations of criminal allegations. As part of Community Affairs Outreach Program, lectured to school and neighborhood groups about the criminal justice system.

CRIMINAL COURT SUPERVISOR

New York County District Attorney's Office, New York, NY 1995 – 1996

Selected as the supervisor of 15 first- and second-year Assistant District Attorneys. Taught Assistants interview and interrogation techniques, investigative methods and trial strategy. Oversaw all aspects of Assistants' work, including case evaluation and courtroom presentations. Edited Assistants' motion responses and legal memoranda.

SELECT RECENT SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

American Bar Association, Criminal Justice Section, Sentencing Advocacy, Practice and Reform Institute, Moderator, scheduled October 2008

University of Chicago, American Constitution Society, Speaker, May 2008

Harvard Law School, Human Rights Journal Conference, Panelist, March 2008

University of Washington Law School, Gates Public Service Law Speaker Series, Speaker, April 2007

Moorehouse College, Community Voices' Freedom's Voice Conference, Moderator, April 2007

National Association of Counties Annual Meeting, Speaker, January 2007

Yale Law School, Reblaw Conference, Panelist, May 2006 Yale

AWARDS

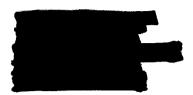

Special Commendation for Outstanding Service, Civil Rights Division, Department of Justice, 2001.

Multiple Federal Bureau of Investigations Awards for work on excessive force and hate crimes.

Member, New York State Bar Association

CURRICULUM VITAE OF JOSEPH L. DUNN

Contact Information

Professional Employment

Chief Executive Officer, State Bar of California, 2010-present
Chief Executive Officer, California Medical Association, 2006-2009
State Senator, 34th Senate District, Orange County, elected November 1998,
Re-elected November 2002
Partner, Robinson, Calcagnie & Robinson, 1996-2006
Newport Beach law firm specializing in complex litigation
Senior Partner, Robins, Kaplan, Miller & Ciresi, 1983-1995
National law firm specializing in complex litigation

State Bar of California

Performing all functions necessary as CEO of a large judicial branch regulatory body with a mission of public protection. The State Bar of California is the largest state bar in the nation with over 225,000 members and a budget of approximately $140 million. The State Bar oversees California's law schools, the admission to the legal profession, the discipline of lawyers including the State Bar Court, as well as a variety of other mandatory and voluntary activities.

California Medical Association

Performed all functions necessary as CEO of a large, multi-million dollar, non-profit association representing the physicians of California and their patients. CMA is the largest state medical association in the United States. CMA is comprised of not only the physician, member-based association, but also several subsidiary organizations that perform critical functions within the world of medicine.

Leadership

- Member, Board, Physician's Advocacy Institute, Inc., a national non-profit organization dedicated to assisting solo and small group physicians to survive in today's health marketplace.
- Member, Board, Institute for Medical Quality, a non-profit subsidiary of CMA that performs critical inspection services for medical facilities.
- Member, Board, California Medical Association Foundation, the non-profit organization of CMA dedicated to advancing issues of public health.

Senate Experience

Effectuated public policy in both the legislative and regulatory arenas and developed bi-partisan relationships with legislative leadership, current and former legislators, current and former governors, agency and department heads, key staff and the advocacy corp. Called upon by legislative leadership to mediate and negotiate resolution of complex issues involving diverse constituencies with competing agendas.

Leadership

- Chair, Senate Judiciary Committee, 2005-2006
- Chair, Senate Housing Committee, 2001-2002
- Chair, Senate Budget Subcommittee #4, State Administration, General Government, Judiciary, Public Safety, and Transportation, 2002-2005
- Chair, Senate Select Committee to Investigate Price Manipulation of the Wholesale Energy Market (committee formed to investigate allegations of price manipulation during the energy crisis; conducted the first legislative contempt proceedings in 70 years; took the first depositions in the history of the State Legislature), 2001-2003

A Sampling of Investigations

- Chaired the three year investigation into the causes and solutions of the California Energy Crisis.
- Chaired the two year investigation into state and local government involvement in the illegal deportation of U.S. citizens of Mexican-American decent in the 1930's.
- Chaired the two year investigation into the illegal use of the National Guard by the federal government for domestic spying purposes following 9/11.

Legal Experience

In over 25 years of law practice, successfully handled and prosecuted large complex cases, as well as advocated on behalf of the judiciary and developed relationships with plaintiffs' and defense bar, the bench, and leadership and management of the judicial branch of government.

Leadership

- Senior Partner, Robins, Kaplan, Miller & Ciresi As a senior partner, shared management responsibility over employees, individual budgets, personnel issues, case selection and professional responsibility.
- Plaintiffs' Liaison Counsel in three statewide coordinated cases A court-appointed position that involved managing all aspects of complex litigation involving hundreds of law firms, including developing budgets, collecting funds, providing accountings to the court, case management orders, hearings, and motions, as well as developing and maintaining relationships with defense counsel, plaintiffs' counsel and the court.
- Co-Lead Counsel in three large, complex cases in state and federal courts participated in all aspects of litigation including developing and implementing strategy, managing multi-million dollar budgets for cases involving defective heart valves, public entity claims against the tobacco industry, and cancer-causing releases from the Hanford Nuclear Reservation in the state of Washington.
- Member, Judicial Council of California Responsible for the policymaking of the California courts, for ensuring the consistent, independent, impartial, and accessible administration of justice for the largest court system in the nation, 2005-2007.
- Member, Steering Committee, Commission for Impartial Court A 2 ½ year effort under the auspices of the Judicial Council to examine the threats to the independence and impartiality of the courts and to make recommendations for dealing with such threats, 2007-present.

Key Cases

- Counsel for Los Angeles County and Lt. Gov. Gray Davis in the Tobacco Litigation
- Counsel for plaintiffs in the Hanford Nuclear Reservation Litigation in the state of Washington
- Plaintiffs' Liaison Counsel, California Coordinated Breast Implant Litigation, 1992-1998
- Plaintiffs' Liaison Counsel, California Coordinated UCI Fertility Litigation, 1996-1998
- Plaintiffs' Liaison Counsel, Consolidated Texaco Refinery Litigation, 1994-1995
- Counsel for plaintiffs in the Consolidated Shiley Heart Valve Litigation, 1987-1992

Honors

Throughout an extensive career in the legal and legislative professions, received numerous awards and recognitions, including more than 50 Legislator-of-the Year Awards. A sampling includes:

Legislator-of-the-Year Awards

- California State Firefighters' Association, 1999
- Peace Officers Research Association of California, 1999
- California League of Conservation Voters Freshman of the Year, 2000
- California Chapter of the American College of Emergency Physicians, 2000
- · California Children's Hospitals Association, 2001
- Orange County Medical Association Health Hero, 2001
- California Building Industry Association, 2001, 2005
- Affordable Housing Clearinghouse, 2001
- Orange County Community Clinics Association, 2001
- CA Association of Homes and Services for the Aging, 2002
- League of United Latin American Citizens Esperanza Award, 2002; Citizen of the Year, 2005
- California Congress of Seniors, 2002
- California State Sheriffs' Association, 2003
- American Judges Association, The Glenn R. Winters Award, 2004
- Children's Specialty Care Coalition, 2004
- California Judges Association Scales of Justice Award, 2004
- California National Emergency Number Association, 2004
- California State Bar, 2004
- Santa Barbara County Medical Society, 2004
- California Alliance of Retired Americans, 2005
- California Children's Hospital Association, Lifetime Achievement Award, 2006
- Judicial Council of California, The Stanley Mosk Defender of Justice Award, 2006
- Sierra Club, Outstanding Public Service Award, 2007

Recognitions

- UCI Chief Executive Roundtable for Outstanding Commitment to UCI & UCI Medical Center, 2001
- Military Order of the Purple Heart for Exceptional Support of Veterans, 1999
- Dubbed by California Lawyer Magazine as "The Man Who Cracked Enron", 2002
- Consumer Attorneys of California Presidential Award of Merit, 1993 through 1995, and 1997
- Recognized by California Lawyer magazine, Top 100 Lawyers in California, 2001 through 2006
- The League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC), Recognition for outstanding service to Hispanic Community, 2001
- Vietnamese Community of Southern California, Inc., Recognition for supporting religious freedom and humanitarian rights in Vietnam, 2001.
- Recipient of California Lawyer Attorney of the Year (CLAY) Award for Government/Public Policy, 2002 and 2005
- Recipient of California Journal's award for Hardest Working Senator, 2002
- Recognized by California Journal as one of the top legislators for leadership potential, integrity, problem-solving and quick study, 2002
- Recognized by Orange County Business Journal as "The Person To Watch" 2002, 2003 and as "one of the 50 most influential people in Orange County", 2003
- Jewish National Fund Tree of Life Award, 2003

Current Civic Leadership

- Trustee, University of California, Irvine (UCI) Foundation.
 A foundation governed by 30 trustees responsible for private fundraising in the local community to assist the development of UCI. The Foundation has recently passed the half way point on a billion dollar fundraising campaign effort.
- Chair, Audit Committee of UCI Foundation. The three-member committee ensures fiscal solvency and accuracy of the foundation's fundraising and investment activities.
- Chair, UCI School of Law Dean's Cabinet. 2000-Present. Led a ten-year effort to gain formal approval for a public law school at UCI from the UC Board of Regents and to raise all necessary funds from the private sector. The law school was formally approved in the fall of 2006. Under the leadership of founding Dean Erwin Chemerinsky, we welcome our inaugural first year class in August 2009.
- Member, Dean's Advisory Council. The Council advises Dean Chemerinsky on the development and growth of the new law school. Its members include federal appellate justices and trial judges, state appellate justices, Dean's of top 20 law schools, law professor and practitioners.
- Chair, UCI Regenerative Medicine Leadership Council. The Council oversees and directs all external efforts relating to support for the regenerative (stem cell) scientific research at UCI. UCI is the leading research University in the world for regenerative medicine.

Association Experience

- Vice President, Consumer Attorneys of California, 1996
- Board Member, Consumer Attorneys of California, 1989-1998
- President-Elect, Orange County Trial Lawyers' Association, 1997-1998
- Board Member, Orange County Trial Lawyers' Association, 1990-1998
- Chair, Education Committee, Consumer Attorneys of California 1995-1997
- Co-Chair, Education Committee, Orange County Bar Association, 1998

Education

- University of Minnesota School of Law, J.D., 1983, Cum Laude
- College of St. Thomas, St. Paul, MN, 1980, B.A., Magna Cum Laude

References available upon request

Larry R. Feldman

Special Counsel Litigation

Areas of Experience: High Stakes Litigation

Los Angeles Office 1999 Avenue of the Stars Suite 1700 Los Angeles, California 90067

J.D. (cum laude), Loyola University of Los Angeles, 1969 B.S., San Fernando Valley State College, 1966

Admissions: California

President, Los Angeles County Bar Association, 1987–1988; President Los Angeles Trial Lawyers Association, 1984; Fellow, American College of Trial Lawyers; Fellow, International Academy of Trial Lawyers; Vice-President, American Board of Trial Advocates; Board of Directors, Association of Business Trial Lawyers; Board of Governors, California Trial Lawyers Association, 1981. Larry Feldman focuses on civil litigation, with primary emphasis in high stakes entertainment, business, insurance, legal malpractice, real estate and personal injury tort litigation. Mr. Feldman is one of the outstanding trial lawyers in the United States. He has been honored twice as the Trial Lawyer of the Year, once by the Los Angeles Trial Lawyers Association and once by Loyola Law School. Moreover, he has been elected to the prestigious American College of Trial Lawyers and the International Academy of Trial Lawyers.

Mr. Feldman has been trying jury trials for over 35 years and focuses on high-profile litigation. He has handled a wide variety of cases. His diverse experience is best exemplified by the fact that he represented a young 13-year-old boy who accused Michael Jackson of child molestation, as well as defending major entertainment and political personalities accused of wrongful conduct. He has represented numerous plaintiffs against insurance companies for the bad faith refusal to pay benefits. He has represented numerous clients against lawyers who have committed malpractice, as well as defending major law firms who have been charged with malpractice. Mr. Feldman has handled all types of labor litigation, aircraft litigation and products liability litigation. Mr. Feldman has both prosecuted on behalf of businesses as well as defended businesses in wrongful termination and contract litigation. Recently, Mr. Feldman obtained a $156 million verdict against an insurance company for fraud, a $28 million wrongful termination verdict, a $15 million verdict against Disney, and obtained a defense verdict for a Dow Jones 30 company in a claim for $1 billion. Mr. Feldman has tried over 100 civil jury trials and obtained hundreds of millions of dollars in settlements and verdicts for his clients.

In addition to being a prominent civil lawyer, Mr. Feldman served as President of the Los Angeles County Bar Association and the Los Angeles Trial Lawyers Association. He currently serves on the Committee of the prestigious Book of Approved Jury Instructions (BAJI) and on the Board of the California Lawyer Magazine, as well as on the Board of the American Board of Trial Advocates.

Mr. Feldman graduated Cum Laude in 1969 from Loyola University in Los Angeles. Mr. Feldman was Editor-in-Chief of the Loyola Law Review and graduated No. 1 in his class.

Mr. Feldman has once again been named one of the "Nation's Top 10 Commercial Litigation Lawyers" by the United States Lawyer Rankings List for 2008 and 2009, is cited in the Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business (2005-2008) and is included in the prestigious California Lawyer "Most Respected Lawyers." He was named the "Top Tort Lawyer" by Los Angeles Magazine and he was named one of the "500 Leading Litigators in America" by Lawdragon, a company that rates lawyers and judges.

TIM RUTTEN

Tim Rutten was on the staff of the Los Angeles Times for 40 years. During that time, he served variously as an op-ed columnist, media columnist, editorial writer, book critic, news analyst, Opinion editor, assistant National editor and City-County Bureau Chief. During the latter assignment, he directly oversaw an award-winning investigative series on the inadequacies of medical treatment in the Los Angeles County jails, as well as the paper's coverage of the Los Angeles Police Department's so-called Rampart scandal.

His journalism and criticism also has appeared in the Economist, the New York Review of Books and the Times of London Literary Supplement (TLS). He is coauthor with the late Johnnie L. Cochran, Jr. of the New York Times best-seller, "Journey to Justice."

In 1992 and 1995, Rutten was part of the Times teams that received the Pulitzer Prizes for breaking news. His recent individual awards include the Anti-Defamation League's 2008 Hubert H. Humphrey First Amendment Freedoms Prize, the Los Angeles County Criminal Courts Bar Association's 2010 Distinguished Journalism Award (accompanied by commendations from the LA County District Attorney and Los Angeles City Attorney) and the American Civil Liberties Union's 2011 Defender of the First Amendment Award.

HOME

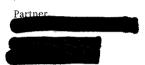

LOGIN

PRACTICES + LAWYERS + OFFICES + DIVERSITY + OUR STORY + PROBONO + CAREERS + FIRM NEWS + PUBLICATIONS

Robert Bonner

Home > Lawyers > Robert Bonner

Los Angeles Office 333 South Grand Avenue Los Angeles, CA 90071-3197

PRACTICES

Litigation Antitrust and Trade Regulation Appellate and Constitutional Law Crisis Management Government and Commercial Contracts Intellectual Property Media, Entertainment and Technology Public Policy White Collar Defense and Investigations

EDUCATION

Georgetown University, 1966 Juris Doctor University of Maryland, 1963 Bachelor of Arts

Robert C. Bonner is a partner in the Los Angeles and Washington, D.C. offices of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. He is a member of the firm's White Collar Defense and Investigations and Public Policy Practice Groups and the firm's Crisis Management Team. Mr. Bonner's practice focuses on internal investigations, high-stakes civil litigation and defense of government enforcement actions, and he advises on the intersection of homeland security, international trade and customs issues.

From 2003 through December 2005, Mr. Bonner served as the first Commissioner of U.S. Customs and Border Protection, the agency of the Department of Homeland Security responsible for managing, controlling and securing the United States' borders, while facilitating global trade and travel.

Following the terrorist attacks of 9/11, Mr. Bonner created the unprecedented Container Security Initiative (CSI) and the Customs-Trade Partnership Against Terrorism (C-TPAT) - both continue to revolutionize the security and more efficient movement of trade around the world. At the same time Mr. Bonner focused on securing international supply chains from the terrorist threat, he also pursued and implemented a national border control strategy to secure America's borders. This strategy consists of a centralized command structure, rapid response capability, and a defense-in-depth, while relying upon highly-trained personnel, strengthened infrastructure and improved technology.

Mr. Bonner was appointed by President George W. Bush to serve as Commissioner of U.S. Customs Service in September 2001. Before that, his government service included serving as Administrator of the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) from 1990 to 1993, as U.S. District Judge for the Central District of California from 1989 to 1990, and as the U.S. Attorney for the Central District of California from 1984 through 1989.

Mr. Bonner was a litigation partner in Gibson Dunn's Los Angeles office from 1993 to 2001, when he served as Co-Chair of the Business Crimes and Investigations Practice Group. His practice focused on business and white-collar crime matters, complex civil cases, internal corporate investigations and corporate compliance programs. Mr. Bonner is a fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers. In addition to holding a seat as a member of the Board of Trustees of California Institute of Technology, Mr. Bonner also serves as Chairman of the Audit & Compliance Committee. He also Chairman of the Homeland Security Advisory Council, Region One and is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and the Pacific Council for International Policy.

HOME

LOGIN

PRACTICES + 1.3% YERS + OFFICES + DIVERSITY + OUR STORY + PRO BONO + CAREERS + FIRM NEWS + PUBLICATIONS

Debra Wong Yang

Home > Lawyers > Debra Wong Yang

Los Angeles Office 333 South Grand Avenue Los Angeles, CA 90071-3197 USA

PRACTICES

Litigation
Crisis Management
Health Care
Information Technology
and Data Privacy
Intellectual Property
Life Sciences
Media, Entertainment
and Technology
White Collar Defense and Investigations

EDUCATION

Boston College, 1985 Juris Doctor

Pitzer College, 1981 Bachelor of Arts Debra Wong Yang is a partner in Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher's Los Angeles office. She is Co-Chair of the firm's Crisis Management Practice Group and the White Collar Defense and Investigations Practice Group

Ms. Yang previously served as the United States Attorney for the Central District of California. She was appointed in May 2002 by President George W. Bush, who made her the first Asian-American woman to serve as a United States Attorney.

Ms. Yang led the largest United States Attorney's Office outside of Washington, D.C. The office serves the approximately 18 million people who live in the counties of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, Ventura, Santa Barbara and San Luis Obispo. The office employs approximately 260 Assistant United States Attorneys who litigate criminal, civil and tax matters in United States District Court

After becoming United States Attorney, Ms. Yang was selected to serve on President Bush's Corporate Fraud Task Force and to chair the Attorney General's Advisory Committees on Cyber/Intellectual Property and Civil Rights. She was appointed by the Attorney General to sit on the Attorney General's Advisory Committee and on the Intellectual Property Task Force. She also served on the Ninth Circuit Jury Reform Committee.

Prior to being appointed United States Attorney, Ms. Yang was a California state judge. She was appointed to the Los Angeles Municipal Court in 1997 and became a member of the Los Angeles Superior Court bench in 2000. As a judge, Ms. Yang acted as the Supervising Judge for the Hollywood Courthouse.

Ms. Yang served as an Assistant United States Attorney for approximately seven years prior to her judicial career. As a federal prosecutor, she handled violent crimes, white-collar crimes, international money laundering, arson and computer crimes. As an Assistant United States Attorney, Ms. Yang successfully prosecuted a number of high-profile cases, including a Glendale arson investigator convicted of setting fires throughout the state of California, the first federal carjacking case in California, the kidnapping of a local real estate agent and a computer hacker who received what was then the longest prison sentence for computer intrusion.

Prior to government service, Ms. Yang was in private practice at law firms in Los Angeles and Chicago. Her practice focused primarily on commercial litigation and pharmaceutical defense.

Ms. Yang has been an adjunct professor at the USC School of Law, where she taught trial advocacy. She has also been an instructor at the National Institute of Trial Advocacy and an instructor at California's Judicial College:

Ms. Yang previously served as President of The Chinese American Museum in Los Angeles, where she played an instrumental role in the creation of this new landmark for Southern California. Ms. Yang was a founding member and officer of the first Asian American Bar Association in Chicago, and she has been an officer and board member of the Southern California Chinese Lawyer Association. In 2002, both the Inglewood Courts and the Los Angeles City Council honored her for her long-standing commitment to victim's rights. The Asian Pacific Bar Association has selected her as the 2002 recipient of their Public Service Award. The National Asian Pacific American Bar Association selected her as the 2003 recipient of the Trailblazers award and in 2007, the Women's Leadership Award. In 2004, she was appointed to the President's Council for Pitzer College of the Claremont Colleges and was given their inaugural Distinguished Alumni Award. She was also recognized by the Inglewood Court as a champion of civil rights.

Ms. Yang received her Juris Doctorate in 1985 from Boston College Law School and served as a law

ADMISSIONS	clerk to the Honorable Ronald S.W. Lew in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California.
California Bar
RECENT PUBLICATIONS
2010 Year-End Health Care Compliance Update
FCPA Challenges from Across the Pacific
Webcast: The New SEC Individual Cooperation Initiative
Health Care Compliance in 2009 and Going Forward
6th Annual Webcast Briefing on Challenges in Compliance and Corporate Governance
More Publications
	,

William F. Courtice

Summary of qualifications

I am a self starting, motivated person who has pursued a career in law enforcement since the late 1960's. As long as I have good health and energy, I will continue to offer my service wherever it is needed.

Work experience

From 8/2001 to present:

I am a CA licensed private investigator, handling civil cases for attorneys and other trial preparation matters in anticipation of trial.

From approx. 7/2005 to present I continue to investigate Workers' Compensation Fraud as a Contracted Private Investigator for the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department – Internal Crime Investigation Bureau. I am assigned cases by I.C.I.B., investigating employees claiming work-related injury who are suspected of gaming the system by collecting Work Comp. benefits while engaging in activities that are contrary to their claimed work restrictions. I produce concise reports supported by sub-rosa video that allows L.A.S.D to make appropriate decisions regarding those employees. My direct supervisor at ICIB is Sgt. Kelly Matthews. He has been temporarily assigned to the recently developed jail task force.

From 11/1970 to 8/2001 I was employed as a police officer by the South Pasadena Police Department. Following training certified by the California Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training (P.O.S.T.), I was a police officer handling and supervising investigations of crimes occurring within this jurisdiction. Over the course of my 30+ career, I promoted to Corporal, then to Sergeant/Watch Commander at S.P.P.D. I handled assignments in the patrol division, investigative division (detectives), and I was selected to create and operate the first Professional Standards office at this department. In that position, I oversaw recruiting, testing, hiring, training and internal investigations of both sworn and civilian employees at S.P.P.D. Prior to my retirement, I was selected to manage the money laundering team of a multi-agency drug interdiction task force (LAIMPACT). Prior to my full time employment, I served the S.P.P.D. as a sworn Reserve Police Officer (1969-1970). South Pasadena Chief of Police Joseph Payne has known me since he began his career at S.P.P.D. His phone number is

From 6/1967 to 11/1970 I was employed as an Assistant Operations Officer, then as a Loan Officer for Security Pacific National Bank. I later was employed as a Branch Manager for Central Bank of Glendale, at its newly opened satellite office on Brand Boulevard in Glendale. My banking training and experience has provided me with the knowledge that has assisted in my investigation of monetary crimes throughout my law enforcement career and later in private investigations.

Graduated: South Pasadena High School, June, 1963.

Education/Certificates

Attended California State University at Los Angeles – September, 1963 until the late 70's (full time at first / part time around full time employment later). Initial major in 1963 was Business Administration. Changed to Criminal Justice circa 1969/1970. When I discontinued attending Cal State in the late 1970's, I was 12 quarter units short of receiving a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice, with concentration in Administration.

At the time of my retirement from law enforcement service, I held Basic, Intermediate, Advanced, and Supervisory Certificates issued by the California Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST). Since retirement, I have continued to take training courses targeting the field of background investigations, fraud investigations, and rolling surveillance.

Professional memberships

I have been a member of the following organizations: California Background Investigator's Association, Southern California Fraud Investigators Association, California Association of Licensed Investigators, and Professional Investigators of California.

Community activities

I am active within my church, additionally providing professional photography for their programs and publications. I also volunteer as photographer/videographer for the South Pasadena Police Department.

Volunteer experience

Currently: Volunteer photographer – videographer for the South Pasadena Police Department – Assigned to Administrative Division (Sgt. Mike Neff, OIC)

Languages

Prior to my retirement, I was fluent in the Spanish language. I have not had much occasion to use this second language since my retirement, but can still carry on a conversation in Spanish.

Security clearance

I earned an FBI "Top Secret" Clearance while working at LA IMPACT, to facilitate my team's interaction with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, in Westwood, in cases that we jointly investigated.

Awards received

I was selected as "Officer of the Year" at South Pasadena Police Department, June, 1993.

I received numerous commendations during my career at SPPD, from my supervisors, Deputy District Attorneys with whom I worked, as well as crime victims.

Upon my retirement from South Pasadena Police Department, I received written Commendations and Certificates of Recognition from: United States Senator Dianne Feinstein, and United States Senator Barbara Boxer.

Other written Commendations were received from: California Governor Gray Davis, California State Senator Jack Scott; California Assemblywoman Carol Liu, The Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors; A Personal Commendation signed and presented personally by County Supervisor Michael Antonovich.; and a Proclamation from the South Pasadena City Council, signed by Mayor Rose.

Hobbies/References

Sharing time with my wonderful family: my wife, children, and ten grandchildren. I also enjoy fishing, boating, photography and videography.

References: Available upon request.

Elwood Lui Partner

CONTACT

EDUCATION

University of California, Los Angeles (J.D. 1969; M.B.A. 1964; B.S. 1962)

BAR ADMISSIONS

California and District of Columbia

GOVERNMENT SERVICE

Associate Justice, California Court of Appeal (1981-1987); Judge: Los Angeles Superior Court (1980-1981) and Los Angeles Municipal Court (1975-1980); and Deputy Attorney General, California Department of Justice (1969-1971)

Profile

Elwood Lui represents clients in appeals and complex litigation in federal and state appellate and trial courts.

He is a former associate justice of the California Court of Appeal, Second Appellate District, Division 3 and served as an associate justice, pro tempore, California Supreme Court. He also served as a judge of the Los Angeles County Superior and Municipal Courts. He was a California Deputy Attorney General. He is considered an authority on financial and accounting matters, is a CPA, and practiced with Deloitte & Touche.

Representative clients in recent matters include the State of California, Los Angeles County, Metropolitan Transportation Authority for the County of Los Angeles, Federated Department Stores, Parker Hannifin Corporation, Pearle Vision, R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Holdings, Sempra Energy, Verlzon Wireless, and Williams Power Company.

Elwood has a lengthy record of public service. The California Supreme Court appointed him special master of the State Bar Disciplinary System. He was appointed as the settlement referee by a three-judge federal panel to attempt a settlement involving the California prison overcrowding litigation. He served as a lawyer representative for the Central District of California to the Ninth Circuit, a past president of the California Judges Association, and was on the faculty for the Continuing Judicial Studies Program and California Judicial College. He was chair of the bipartisan Judicial Advisory Selection Committee for the Central District of California and currently serves on Senator Dianne Feinstein's Judicial Selection Committee for the Central District of California.

EXPERIENCE

County of Los Angeles prevails in second round of challenges to local judicial benefits Jones Day represents the County of Los Angeles in a closely watched case challenging the constitutionality of the County's payment of so-called "local judicial benefits" to Los Angeles Superior Court judges.

Appointed by the Supreme Court as special master of the California State Bar Attorneys

EXPERIENCEHIGHLIGHTS

Prominent California winery challenges arbitration award in California Court of Appeal

Los Angeles County obtains summary judgment in FLSA collective action involving bonuses paid to firefighters

Los Angeles County MTA defends against federal action alleging violations of ADA

AREAS OF FOCUS

Issues & Appeals Construction

HONORS & DISTINCTIONS

Recipient of California Judicial Council's Witkin Amicus Curiae Award, California Bar's Witkin Medal, UCLA Alumni Professional Achievement Award, and UCLA Law School's Alumnus of the Year; recommended in Chambers Global (2010) for U.S. appellate litigation (Band 1); Fellow, American Academy of Appellate Lawyers and member, California Academy of Appellate Lawvers

Discipline System

Elwood Lui appointed by the Supreme Court as special master of the California State Bar Attorneys Discipline System.

Amici law firms obtain reversal of decision disqualifying entire firm where ethical wall isolated personally-conflicted attorney Jones Day drafted an amicus brief on behalf of twenty-four national law firms in support of First American Title LA seeking reversal of the trial court decision that there was an irrebuttable presumption under California law that a Sonnenschein, Nath & Rosenthal attorney shared alleged confidential information he obtained from his former employer with his current colleagues.

Bloomingdale's wins dismissal of wage and hour class action allegations
Jones Day represented Federated Department Stores, Inc. in a putative class action brought by employees alleging missed meal and rest breaks, failure to pay split shift premiums, failure to pay waiting time penalties, failure to pay for uniform purchase and unfair business practices.

Los Angeles County MTA wins monumental California Supreme Court decision involving worker's compensation benefits
Jones Day argued as amicus on behalf of the Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority ("MTA") and won a major decision in the California Supreme Court when it held that California's long-standing method of determining an employer's liability for workplace injuries where an injured worker has preexisting Industrial injuries or non-industrial disabilities survived a 2004 statutory amendment.

County of L.A. files petition for writ of administrative mandamus Jones Day represented County of Los Angeles and filed a petition for writ of administrative mandamus challenging agency's decision to disclose private employee information to union

County of Los Angeles successfully defends against class action involving independent contractors

Jones Day obtained and successfully defended a judgment in favor of the County of Los Angeles in a class action that sought a determination that independent contractors who arguably met the test for common law employment were entitled to civil service status, pay, benefits and pensions.

Williams Power successfully defends proceedings arising from improperly assessed utility user taxes
Jones Day won a decisive victory for Williams Power Company, Inc. when Los Angeles Superior Court Judge Dzintra Janavs ruled that the City of Redondo Beach improperly assessed Williams for $56.7 million in utility user taxes ("UUT") for a period of 6 plus years from 1998-2004.

Appointed by the three judge federal panel as the Settlement Referee to attempt a negotiated resolution of the California Prison Overcrowding litigation
Elwood Lui was appointed by the three judge federal panel as the Settlement Referee to attempt a negotiated resolution of the California Prison Overcrowding litigation.

LA County successfully defends judgment in Equal Pay class action
On behalf of the County of Los Angeles, Jones
Day obtained and successfully defended a judgment in favor of the County.

County of Los Angeles defends against putative wage and hour class action Jones Day represented County of Los Angeles in a putative wage and hour class action involving claims of failure to provide meal periods as required by the California Labor Code

LA Unified School District wins new trial after jury verdict on teacher's sexual harassment action.

The Los Angeles Unified School District retained Jones Day after a jury awarded a multimillion dollar verdict against the District on a sexual harassment case based on sexual harassment by students towards a teacher.

Cole National challenges California restrictions on business and financial relationships between opticians and optometrist or ophthalmologist

Jones Day represented Cole National Corporation, a provider of optical products and services, and two of its subsidiaries in a challenge to a California regulation imposing limits on business and financial relationships between opticians and optometrists or ophthalmologists.

Ecolab appeals state law issue in wage and hour class action
Jones Day represented Ecolab Inc., a pest control company, on appeal arguing that state law overtime exemption for drivers of hazardous materials applies to employees in wage-hour class action involving approximately 400 drivers.

Los Angeles County wins summary judgment in multi-billion dollar False Claims Act case involving Medicaid funds
On behalf of the County of Los Angeles, Jones Day obtained summary judgment in a multi-billion dollar False Claims Act case in which plaintiff claimed that the County had conspired with the State of California to defraud the federal government of Medicaid funds.

Macy's West defends against putative wage and hour class action resulting in arbitration Jones Day represented Macy's West, Inc. in a putative class action by commissioned sales employees alleging improper overtime commission calculations, unlawful commission deductions, conversion of labor, improper wage statements and unfair business practices under Cal. Bus. and Prof. Code Section 17200.

LA County appeals decision regarding a recalculation of pension benefits
Jones Day represented the county of Los Angeles in litigation arising from a petition for writ of mandate filed by retired county employees, who sought to direct the Los Angeles County Employees Retirement
Association and its Board of Retirement
(LACERA) to recalculate their pension benefits to retroactively include a specific item of remuneration to which the plan members had no vested right.

LA County defends against claims challenging validity of agreement to administer LACERA pension plan

The County of Los Angeles retained Jones Day to represent it in an action challenging the validity of an agreement entered into by the County and the Board of Retirement administering the County's pension plan (LACERA).

PUBLICATIONS

August 2008

Everything You Always Wanted to Know About a Public Employer's Ability to Modify Retiree Benefits but Were Too Afraid to Ask

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

September 18, 2008

Wage and Hour Litigation and Developments: Recent Trends, New Types of Cases, and What to Expect in 2009, Jones Day 2008 California Labor & Employment Law Briefing Los Angeles, California

April 27-30, 2008

IPBA 2008 Annual Conference, Inter-Pacific Bar Association Los Angeles, California

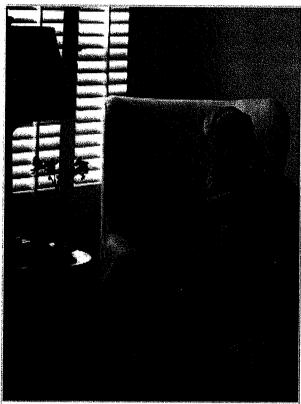

Show Less »

Long Beach's George Deukmejian: At 83, a quiet retirement

By Doug Krikorian. Press-Telegram Columnist

Posted: 07/04/2011 04:59:12 PM PDT

Updated: 07/04/2011 05:57:24 PM PDT

Former governor George Deukmejian, 83, is spending his retirement years at his longtime home in Long Beach. (Brittany Murray / Press-Telegram)

He belies his age as he navigates the neighborhoods near his home in Belmont Park where he has resided for 51 years with his wife and where they raised their three children.

The gait is firm, the voice is strong, the eyes are alert, the posture is erect, the hair is plentiful, and the face is unlined.

His birth certificate insists he's 83, but the laws of time have been rescinded with George Deukmejian, who doesn't look that dramatically different now than he did when serving two terms as governor of California.

He was in the political maelstrom for 28 years -- he was the state attorney general for four and served in the state Legislature both as an assemblyman and senator -- but is now in leisurely retirement far removed from those frenetic days when he was a conservative Republican continually battling Democrats over taxes, the death penalty, budget cuts, etc.

"I used my veto powers more than 4,000 times as governor," he says, shaking his head softly in recollection. "The Democrats dominated the Legislature, and I'd constantly use the line-item veto on spending and taxes. I'd also use the veto on bills I didn't like. Not one of my vetoes were ever overturned."

When Deukmeijan, ironically, succeeded Jerry Brown as governor on Jan. 7, 1983, he inherited a $1.5 billion deficit, minuscule compared with tothe monstrous $25.5 billion deficit that has confronted Brown since he returned to his old post earlier this year.

"The entire state general fund budget in those days was around $22 billion compared to more than $85 billion now," he says.

Despite fierce opposition, Deukmeijan managed to slash state spending and keep the budget balanced throughout his incumbency, leaving office on Jan. 7 1991 without the state coffers overflowing in red ink.

Although he has remained a sideline spectator in regard to the serious financial crisis that has caused such turmoil in this state, Deukmejian, of course, does have his opinions on the matter.

"This never should have happened," he says. "The politicians in this state have been unable to say no to the pressure applied by all the special interests groups. That's all they had to do, but wouldn't do it and caved in too often.

"It's really simple. If you don't live within your means, you're going to go into debt. The same thing applies to the state. If you don't have the money, then funds shouldn't be appropriated.

"I use a motor vehicle as an example. It has to have a brake to go with the accelerator, or the car won't stop. And, if that happens. there's a serious problem. Well, the same goes with state spending. If there's no brake to stop its acceleration, they'll be a serious problem

"Like I said, this all didn't have to happen. All we had to do is live within our means. But we chose not to."

An honest man

George Deukmejian is seated at a corner table in the second floor lounge at the Long Beach Yacht Club on a recent early afternoon, and a lot of people come up and say hello to Deukmejian, who is unfailingly courteous.

A fellow who says his name is Tilo Lizza approaches and says, "George, you probably don't remember me, but I saw you once at the airport and said to you, 'You look just like George Deukmeijan.' And you responded, 'That's what my mother says to me."

Deukmejian smiles wanly, and you wonder how this nice man with a sweet disposition who never has been tarnished by the faintest whiff of scandal — even his most passionate opponents have conceded his honesty and integrity — ever wound up in the raucous arena of politics.

"It's just something I was always intrigued by," says Deukmejian, whose parents were Armenian immigrants from eastern Turkey and who grew up in a small hamlet called Menands near Albany, N.Y. "When I was going to college (Siena College near Albany). I got involved in some Republican organizations, and even attended the Republican Convention in Philadelphia in 1948 as a sergeant of arms for the Albany contingent. I was 20 at the time, and the Republican presidential nominee was Thomas Dewey, who would lose the election to Harry Truman. I was also involved in Dwight Eisenhower's presidential campaign in 1952."

Deukmejian would obtain his law degree from St. John's University, and during the three years he spent at the school he earned money as a pipe fitter working in old New York apartment buildings.

"Not the most fun job in the world," he says.

But fun was just around the corner for Deukmejian.

After passing the New York bar, he was drafted into the U.S. Army, did his 16-week boot camp training at Fort Dix, N.J., and then spent two years in Paris handling legal claims lodged by French citizens against American military personnel.

A young American bachelor in the City of Light who had his own apartment must have had his share of nocturnal adventures, but Deukmejian, predictably, won't elaborate on the intriguing subject.

When he got out of the service, he visited his married older sister, Anna Ashjian, in Los Angeles and, like so many people who came out here from the East, immediately became smitten by the mild weather.

He relocated permanently to California in 1955, studied a year for the bar, failed in his first attempt, made it in his second, and then began his career in law as a deputy county counsel on civil matters at about the same time ashis sister introduced him at a wedding to a Poly High graduate named Gloria Saatjian.

Deukmejian admits he was struck by a romantic thunderbolt, as he says he asked Ms. Saatjian to marry him on their fourth date.

She countered to be patient, and, indeed, Deukmejian's didn't have to wait long. Four months later -- Feb. 16, 1957 -- they exchanged vows and 54 years later they're still a devoted couple, taking annual summer family trips with their daughters, Leslie and Andrea, son George and six grandchildren to places like Santa Cruz, Rancho Bernardo and Rancho Valencia.

Always low profile

Deukmejian still makes occasional speeches "for special occasions or special people," but steadfastly maintains a low profile, which was his persona when he was such a powerful personage in California that the Republican Party hierarchy reached out to him about being George H.W. Bush's vice-president running mate in the 1988 presidential election.

"I was sent a thick packet about what the job entailed, but I wasn't interested because I didn't want to leave the state to the I ieutenant governor, Leo McCarthy, who would have taken over my position," says Deukmejian. "He was a Democrat, and would have had a lot of judicial positions to fill. I didn't want to cede all the power in this area to the Democrats, and I'm glad I didn't."

When you ask Deukmejian what he considers his noblest achievements as governor, he p auses thoughtfully a moment and then says, "I think the input I had on the state judiciary was important.

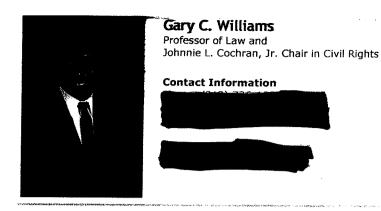

"My judicial appointees have done a good job in upholding the laws in California. There had been some problems in this area in the state Supreme Court, especially when Rose Bird was head of it. "I think we also created a good business climate for investors, and the result is that we created over 2.8 million jobs in the private sector. I think we were very business friendly. I also was the person that brought back the death penalty in California when I was a senator, but, unfortunately, the courts have pretty well hamstrung that with one decision after another against it."

Deukmejian became a partner in the Los Angeles international law firm Sidley & Austin between 1991 and 2000, but now the man who was close to Ronald Reagan and had conversations with Margaret Thatcher and Mikhail Gorbachev lives a most tranquil existence unencumbered by computers, cellphones and iPads.

"Oh, you know what my proudest achievement really (italicize really) is," he volunteers. "Persuading Rich Archbold (the former Press-Telegram executive editor) not to kick Pickles comic strip out of the funnies."

Doug Krikorian can be reached at doug. krikorian@presstelegram.com

Educational and Professional Background

BA, University of California Los Angeles JD, Stanford University

Gary Williams was staff counsel for the Agricultural Labor Relations Board from 1976-79 and staff attorney for the American Civil Liberties Union Foundation of Southern California from 1979-85. Williams was appointed assistant legal director of the American Civil Liberties Union Foundation of Southern California in 1985, a position he maintained until joining the Loyola Law School faculty in 1987.

Professional Memberships and Activities

Past President, Board of Directors of the American Civil Liberties Union of Southern California

At large member, National Board of Directors, American Civil Liberties Union

Program Director, National Institute for Trial Advocacy

Recent Scholarship

"Drum Majors for Justice: Leading the March Toward Social Justice," Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review (2004)

"Incubating Monsters? Prosecutorial Responsibility for the Rampart Scandal," 34 Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review 829 (2001)

"California's Constitutional Right to Privacy: Can It Protect Private Figures from the Unauthorized Publication of Confidential Medical Information?" 18 Loyola Entertainment Law Journal 1 (1997)

Courses Taught

Evidence, Libel, Slander and the First Amendment, Ethical Lawyering, Privacy and the First Amendment, Civil Rights Litigation Seminar

BROWN WHITE & NEWHOUSE LLP

Home

Our Firm

Practices

Our Attorneys

Blogs

Careers

Contact Us

OUR ATTORNEYS

[vcard] [email this page] [print]

Thomas M. Brown

Partner

Noteworthy

Partner, Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton (1995-2005), Chair, White Collar Crime Practice Group (1999-2002); Assistant United States Attorney, Central District of California, Criminal Division, Major Frauds Section (1991-1995); Partner, Hufstedler, Kaus & Beardsley (1987-1991); Associate, Horvitz & Levy (1985).

Education and Honors

Loyola Law School (J.D., 1984, Honors); Editor-in-Chief, Loyola of Los Angeles International and Comparative Law Review (1983-1984); St. Thomas More Law Honor Society; American Jurisprudence Award: Constitutional Law, Legal Research and Writing, and Contracts; Scott Honors Moot Court; Loyola Marymount Graduate School (M.A., English Literature, 1981); Rotary Foundation Scholar (1980-1981); Loyola Marymount University (B.A., English, Political Science, 1979, Honors); Alpha Sigma Nu, National Jesuit Honor Society; Pi Gamma Mu, National Social Science Honor Society.

Clerkships

Law Clerk, Hon. Arthur L. Alarcón, United States Court of Appeals, Ninth Circuit (1986-1987); Law Clerk, Hon. Donald Gates, California Court of Appeals, Second Appellate District, Division Two (1984-1985).

Professional Associations

American Bar Association's White Collar Crime Committee; State Bar of California's Litigation Section and Criminal Justice Section; National Association of Criminal Defense Attorneys; Los Angeles County Bar Association, Criminal Justice Committee; Los Angeles County Bar Association Foundation, Board of Directors (2003-2005); Federal Bar Association, Los Angeles Chapter, Board of Directors (2004-2010).

Bar Admissions

California (1985); United States District Court, Central, Southern, Eastern and Northern Districts of California; United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit; United States Supreme Court.

A representative sampling of Mr. Brown's experience is as follows:

Government Fraud Investigations

- Successfully defended Fortune 50 government contractors in many civil and criminal fraud cases involving false testing, mischarging, and deceptive billing practices involving the manufacture of strategic bomber, carrier based fighter aircraft, and missile systems.
- Successfully represented military aircraft defense government contractor in action involving fraudulent billing practices.
- Successfully represented nation's largest manufacturer of military-grade binoculars for export violations.

 Successfully represented corporation and its president for export violations involving guidance missile technology.

General Fraud Cases and Internal Investigations

- Defended and prosecuted numerous fraud cases involving investors in Ponzi schemes, advance fee schemes, telemarketing schemes, SEC cases, FTC cases, boller-room schemes, real estate fraud, loan fraud, home loan modification cases, tax evasion, health care fraud, and fraudulent conveyance cases.
- Participated and undertook numerous internal investigations involving computer hacking, trade secret theft, embezzlement, wrongful termination, discrimination, sexual harassment, public corruption, and bribery.
- Successfully sued law firms for breach of fiduciary duty and attorney malpractice.

Securities Fraud Investigations and Cases

- Represented officers of companies involving securities fraud, insider trading and financial statement fraud.
- Successfully defended brokerage house involving allegations of false statements to regulators, stock irregularities and manipulation.
- Defended general partner in a $320 million real estate mortgage case involving allegations of securities fraud and obtained a very favorable sentence.
- Defended named law partner in prosecution involving allegations of mail and wire fraud, and money laundering.

Banking

- Served as national counsel in defending financial firm in civil, criminal and administrative forfeiture proceedings.
- Successfully sued banks and credit unions for improperly cashing checks, accepting fraudulent endorsements, opening fraudulent accounts, and not complying with banking policies and procedures.

Tax cases

 Successfully represented numerous individuals and corporations in federal and state tax investigations and prosecutions involving tax evasion, IRS seizures, criminal tax defense, and failure to file.

Trust Litigation

- · Successfully sued trust for breach of fiduciary duty and accounting.
- · Served as trustee counsel in multiple cases.
- Served as attorney for neutral arbitrator in major trust disputes.

Insurance Companies and Brokers

- Successfully represented many national insurance companies against group of attorneys committing insurance fraud against them.
- Successfully represented many insurance brokers and agents in lawsuits involving allegations of fraud, breach of contract, and breach of fiduciary duty in sale of insurance.

Manufacturers

 Represented aerospace, electronics, satellite, and consumer manufacturers in civil and criminal investigations and lawsuits involving false billing practices, false labeling allegations, Foreign Corrupt Practices Act ("FCPA"), and flawed quality control programs.

Whistleblower Suits

- Represented defense contractor in civil and criminal cases involving false testing, mischarging, and deceptive billing practices involving the manufacture of fighter aircraft and missiles;
- Represented defense contractor in civil and criminal cases involving TINA violations.
- Successfully represented major healthcare provider in gul tam lawsuit involving fraud.
- Successfully represented hospital officer in criminal investigation involving mail and wire fraud.

State Criminal Matters

 Represented numerous individuals and companies in cases involving theft, copyright infringement, assault, vehicular manslaughter, narcotics cases, driving while impaired, and embezzlement.

Public Corruption Investigations

- Successfully defended elected city official involving charges of threats against public officials and criminal threats.
- Defended county Risk Manager in state criminal case involving for accepting bribes in connection with his duties and obtained a very favorable sentence.
- Involved in federal criminal investigation involving several members of law enforcement involving public corruption in performance of duties.
- Frequently represent City, City Council, City Council Members, and elected state officials in grand jury investigations, often obtaining favorable results.

Bribery and Extortion Investigations

- Successfully represented national trucking company and its president in commercial bribery case.
- Investigated subsidiary of multi-national corporation involving allegations of extortion involving the CFO and President of the subsidiary.
- Successfully defended national land developer and homebullder in investigation involving allegations of bribing city and redevelopment officials in connection with billion dollar redevelopment project.
- Conducted internal investigation of one of the largest satellite manufacturers regarding a hundred million dollar bribe of foreign officials.

Government Tort Liability and Civil Rights Litigation

 Successfully represented municipalities in government tort liability involving wrongful termination, discrimination, premises liability, and breach of contract matters.

Campaign Finance Investigations

- Successfully represented executives of world's largest shipping company for allegedly improper political contributions.
- Successfully represented international engineering and construction firm investigated for making improper political contributions.
- Successfully defended national title company in campaign contribution and finance investigations conducted on the local and state levels.
- Successfully represented California State elected official in federal and state investigation involving campaign contributions.
- Defended contributors to national political party during congressional investigation of contributions involving presidential election and campaign.

Representation of Professionals

• Defended International accounting firm in U.S. Customs proceedings

- concerning the alleged receipt of laundered money.
- Successfully defended top executive of international financial institution in grand jury investigation involving the financing issues.
- Successfully represented officer of regional hospital in obtaining favorable settlement following termination.
- Successfully represented pharmacists in federal criminal investigations and prosecutions involving improper dispensing of prescription drugs.
- Represented numerous physicians in state and federal criminal investigations for fraud.
- Successfully representing federal court-appointed receiver in prosecuting cases and conducting investigations involving tax fraud and evasion by third parties.
- Defended law firms and Individuals in connection with California State Bar matters and proceedings.
- Defended numerous real estate agents and brokers in numerous cases involving breach of contract and fraud.

Environmental Investigations

- Defended overnight shipping corporation in state criminal case involving the transportation of hazardous materials.
- Defended International computer manufacturer in groundwater contamination lawsuit brought by water district.
- Defended individuals and corporations in connection with criminal, regulatory, and civil environmental matters, including the Clean Water Act, transportation and discharge of hazardous materials, CERCLA, and hazardous waste disposal.
- Defended a financial institution in a criminal investigation involving the work place death of an employee.

Home | Our Firm | Practices | Our Attorneys | Blogs | Careers | Contact Us | Disclaimer